

Superman:

Leo ascendant Sun in Aquarius in seventh – dual identity, everyman, Aquarius quality.

Five planets in Aries in ninth house – superman from another world

Uranus conjunct the MC square the Sun

Saturn conjunct Mars – the Man of Steel

Note the amount of planets with little or no essential dignity.

Saturn in Aries – Fall

Moon in Aries – peregrine

Venus in Aries – detriment

Mercury in Pisces – detriment

Sun Aquarius – detriment

Jupiter is peregrine – although if time is off by a few minutes it will have night triplicity rulership

Only Mars has dignity by sign rulership and it is the final dispositor of the horoscope

Well he is a super hero with weaknesses and vulnerabilities.

Looking at this chart with respect to the USA – using Sibly chart with Sag rising

USA Moon is conjunct Superman's Sun – carrying on the everyman theme.

USA Sun is square Superman's Moon – echo of the above

Superman's nodal axis trine/sextile exactly to the Asc. USA Mars sextile/trines this nodal axis and sextiles the ascendant – bringing Mars into the national picture. Nodal contacts bring in mass emotional responses

Superman's Mars and Saturn are square USA Pluto

Also Superman's Mars is sesquiquadrate USA Asc

Neptune is conjunct itself – hooking into the dream

Chiron contacts are interesting:

Superman's Chiron is conjunct the USA Sun and USA Chiron is conjunct Superman's Node and Aries planets

Jupiter square Jupiter

So, his chart describes the story well, and it fits with the country chart. Superman is always American. You couldn't relocate it for a new interpretation.

How does it fit with the time it was released?

About to come into a Jupiter Saturn conjunction – will be conjunct in August

Technically, it's part of the previous cycle but we'll look at both.

With 1921 Jupiter Saturn

Superman's Neptune - also conjunct the USA Neptune – is conjunct the Jupiter Saturn conjunction.

Mars in the conjunction chart is conjunct Superman's ascendant and trine to the Aries planets

Nodal axes are conjunct

Moon in conjunction chart is trine to Mars and the Aries planets

These are good contacts cementing Martian ideas with the people – moon and node with Mars and ascendant.

This looks like it could fly

With the 1940 Jupiter Saturn

Jupiter Saturn conjunction is tightly conjunct the MC of Superman
Again with have the conjunction Mars conjunct Superman's ascendant
And again we have a Moon node combination also tying in with USA Sun
